

MDSi Honored by AT&T As Outstanding Supplier

Reverse logistics leader stands out amongst its peers, wins prestigious award.

Atlanta, GA - August 12, 2008 –Commitment to excellence over the past year has earned MDSi recognition as an outstanding supplier to affiliates of the AT&T Inc. (NYSE:T), one of the world’s leading data, voice, wireless and Internet services providers.

“We are proud of our long-standing tradition and leadership position in providing unparalleled products and services to our worldwide customer base,” said Tim Harden, president of AT&T Supply Chain and Fleet Operations. “We’re successful on that front in large part thanks to suppliers like MDSi that consistently stood out in providing AT&T with better products, services, or solutions.”

MDSi received one of 27 supplier recognition awards for its work in helping AT&T deliver outstanding service to its customers during the past year. MDSi was recognized for its contributions in the area of Creative Cost-Management Solutions.

"MDSi always works to exceed the expectations of its clients," said Bob Pike, COO for MDSi. "We are honored to be recognized by AT&T for this prestigious award and look forward to continuing this high-level of service and return. Like AT&T, MDSi is about client service and results."
